Welcome to the new monthly newsletter from Room 103! In addition to your child's weekly Week at a Glance calendars a monthly letter of special news and events will be sent home. This will keep you informed and up to date on what is happening during your child's school day. I will also try to include any events in the community that may benefit you or your child!

Christmas Party at the Masonic Lodge.

We will be going on a holiday field trip! The members of the Masonic Lodge located across the street on

Sweet Home Road have invited our Early Educa-

will be held on Wednesday December 16th from 10:00 –11:30 a.m. There will be a pizza lunch and a gift for each child.

A permission slip for this field trip will be sent home. The Amherst police will be available to escort us across the street!

December and January Birthdays!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU!!

Keeping Your Child Healthy

We are trying very hard here at school to do our part with keeping your child and the adults that work with them healthy this cold and flu season! Simple rules of thumb that we follow are:

- wash our hands often
- use hand sani-

Health (con't)

tizer between hand washing

- disinfect our toys regularly
- teach kids to sneeze into their elbow sleeve

- offer healthy snacks and drinks with vitamin C to boost immune systems

Please help us by keeping your child home if they experience a fever, productive cough, vomiting or diarrhea in the last 24 hours!

Thank You!

Ideas for Activities at Home

Wrapping Paper

Dip cookie cutters into red and green paint, make prints on roll of brown paper.

Guitars

Have children stretch rubber bands across a shoe or tissue box. They will enjoy plucking the rubber bands to hear the sounds they produce.

Enjoy your Holidays!

Organization

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

Caption describing picture or graphic.
